EXPERIENCE

Anthony Isola's professional experience includes matters involving wrongful termination claims, discrimination, wage and hour violations, leases, real property litigation, mechanics liens, construction defects, products liability, warranty claims, business and contract disputes, and trademark prosecution.

Anthony represents clients in all phases of lawsuits, including at depositions, mediations and trials. At mediation, he negotiated a settlement with a nationwide fixture supplier, netting the client-subcontractor over $700,000. His trial experience includes successfully defending a corporate officer against a shareholder's claims of fraud and breach of fiduciary duty.

During law school, Anthony served as a law clerk for the Honorable A. James Robertson II of the San Francisco Superior Court and as a certified law clerk for the San Francisco District Attorney's Office where he made frequent courtroom appearances to argue felony preliminary hearings.
